

PEDIATRIC DISASTER SCIENCE RESEARCH TRAINING PROGRAM

- Fellows in their second or third year of training
- Postdoctoral fellows
- Faculty with disaster science research interests

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Health services research methodology
- Study design
- Program evaluation
- Working with large databases
- Grant writing and publishing in disaster science
- Networking with the national disaster science community

PROGRAM BEGINNING OCTOBER 2023

Year long course (3-4 hours per week, 10%-time commitment) with virtual sessions (in real time), one in-person session (location TBD); twice monthly web-based sessions

SCAN TO APPLY

APPLICATION PROCESS

Pediatric Disaster Science Research Training Program Application

Limited travel funding available with priority for individuals and groups underrepresented in medicine. Enrollment opens May 15—Aug 15, 2023.

QUESTIONS?

Dr. Rachel Stanley, Course Director
rachel.stanley@nationwidechildrens.org

April Parish, Course Coordinator
april.parish@nationwidechildrens.org